

NEWS RELEASE

For immediate release: Friday, May 12, 2006

Contact: Linda McMinimy, Executive Director

Phone: 804-643-1166 OR mcminimy_associates@cavtel.net

WILLIAMSBURG AREA LEADERS WIN TRANSIT AWRD

Alexandria --- The Virginia Transit Association (VTA) recognized Williamsburg leaders and organizations for collaborative efforts in the formation of the Williamsburg Area Transit Authority.

2006 Outstanding Contribution by a Public Official Award

The Hon. John J. McGlennon – Vice-Chair, James City County Board of Supervisors

The Hon. Jeanne Zeidler – Mayor, City of Williamsburg

The Hon. Walter C. Zaremba – Chairman, York County Board of Supervisors

Gene R. Nichol – President, College of William and Mary

2006 Outstanding Contribution by Business Award

The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation

The Hon. Christopher Zimmerman, VTA President and Chairman of the Arlington County Board, presented the award during the VTA's annual meeting, held May 10-12 in Alexandria at the Radisson Hotel Old Town . The Virginia Transit Association presents awards each year to recognize exceptional leaders and businesses that advance and expand public transportation in the Commonwealth.

The Virginia Transit Association is a professional association of public transportation systems and related transit businesses, based in Richmond.

#